HARTER SECREST & EMERY ATTORNEYS ELECTED AS OFFICERS OF MCBA YOUNG LAWYERS SECTION

Rochester, New York, September 12, 2019 – Harter Secret & Emery LLP, a full-service business law firm with offices throughout New York, is pleased to announce that Jessica N. Clemente and Allison E. Bartlett have been named as officers of the Monroe County Bar Association Young Lawyers Section.

Clemente will serve as the organization's Chair and Bartlett will serve as the Community Service Co-Chair for the 2019-2020 bar year. The Young Lawyers Section (YLS) of the Monroe County Bar Association is dedicated to community service, education, and social activities within and outside of the bar for young attorneys in the Greater Rochester Area. The section is open to lawyers who have been admitted to the practice of law for ten or fewer years.

Clemente is an associate in the firm's Litigation practice. Her experience includes all aspects of state and federal commercial litigation at the trial and appellate levels, including matters relating to breach of contract, non-disclosure agreements, non-compete agreements, and unfair competition. She counsels clients on a range of litigation matters, with a special focus on intellectual property disputes. Her practice includes representing manufacturers and technology companies on a wide range of claims relating to patents, trademarks, copyrights, and trade secrets.

Clemente is a cum laude graduate of the State University of New York College at Geneseo, and earned her law degree, summa cum laude, from Albany Law School.

Allison E. Bartlett is an associate in the firm's Environmental, Land Use and Zoning practice group. She counsels clients on a wide range of environmental, land use and zoning matters including, environmental due diligence on corporate and real estate transactions, permitting and environmental regulatory compliance, land use, zoning and New York State Environmental Quality Review Act (SEQRA) review, Brownfields redevelopment, and more.

Bartlett earned her law degree, summa cum laude, from Albany Law School and is a graduate of Vassar College.
