

Jacob Miller focuses his practice in the areas of general business and corporate law, mergers and acquisitions, private equity and venture capital, securities, and not-for-profit organizations. He has experience researching and analyzing legal issues across a variety of practice areas, performing due diligence review, drafting memoranda, and legal documents.

Before joining Harter Secrest & Emery as a law clerk, Jacob gained hands-on experience in the corporate, litigation and real state practice groups as a HSE summer associate.

In addition, Jacob served as an Office of Compliance Services Intern at the Boston University General Counsel office where he conducted research to identify compliance obligations under Title IV and the Clery Act.
