

Chelsea handles a wide variety of tasks for the litigation and real estate practice areas.

Her work with the litigation group includes providing support with all aspects of litigation, from pleadings to discovery to legal research. Chelsea assists attorneys in the collection, organization, and review of all case material for specialty and industry-specific litigation, and for insurance defense matters.

With respect to real property matters, Chelsea assists with due diligence and document drafting, and works closely with attorneys, clients, and third parties to facilitate closings and document recording.
