

Mary is a law clerk in the securities and capital markets practice group where she performs due diligence reviews, prepares legal documents, and conducts research. Prior to joining HSE, she was a summer associate with the firm and gained hands-on experience researching and drafting memoranda in various areas of law, including litigation, corporate, real estate, trusts and estates, intellectual property, and employee benefits, and brainstormed strategy with attorneys in preparation for, and during, settlement negotiations.

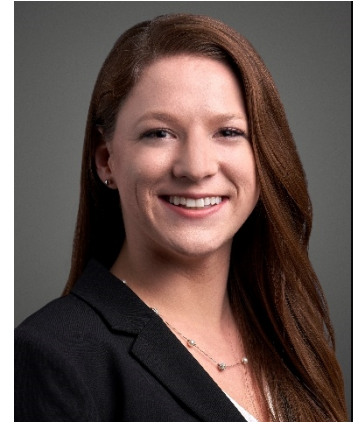

While attending University at Buffalo School of Law, Mary was an intern at the Center for Elder Law and Justice, where she conducted research on complex legal issues, drafted memoranda, participated in client visits, and developed case strategies with attorneys in the health care and guardianship units.
