

Brian is a tenacious and respected trial and appellate lawyer who thrives in high stakes matters.

As chair of the Firm's Government and Internal Investigations practice group, Brian vigorously defends clients who face federal and state investigations and conducts nimble internal investigations to guide organizations through crises and other difficult situations. Brian has broad experience on all sides of investigations, including in health care, higher education, and other regulated areas, and in litigation under the False Claims Act and similar fraud statutes.

Brian draws on investigative and litigation skills he first developed as Senior Litigation Counsel in the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York in Manhattan. His clients in private practice have ranged from individuals and not-for-profits to Fortune 500 companies.

Representative Experience

Selected HSE Representations

- Obtained criminal and civil declinations, as well as settlements, from the U.S. Department of Justice and New York Attorney General in fraud investigations, including for clients in health care, education, and financial services sectors.
- Represented businesses, not-for-profits, municipalities, boards, audit committees, executives, and professionals in investigations by state and federal enforcement agencies such as DOJ, FBI, IRS, SEC, and FTC.
- Successfully defeated a motion to dismiss in a putative antitrust class action against Uber's CEO in Meyer v. Kalanick, 174 F. Supp. 3d 817 (S.D.N.Y. 2016).
- As Circuit-appointed pro bono counsel, secured heavily cited victories in Troma Entertainment v. Centennial Pictures, 729 F.3d 215 (2d Cir. 2013), which limited personal jurisdiction in copyright suits, and in Williams v. Priatno, 829 F.3d 118 (2d Cir. 2016), which effectively struck prison rules.
- Advised health care clients in criminal and civil investigations, audits, disclosures, and disputes, including 340B drug discount program issues.

Selected Government Representations

- Led investigation and filed suit in United States v. Deutsche Bank AG, 11 Civ. 2967 (S.D.N.Y.), a trailblazing quarter-billion dollar False Claims Act case targeting reckless lending practices precipitating the housing crisis.
- Won dismissal of Federal Tort Claims Act suit filed by victims of the 2001 anthrax attacks in Gilvar v. United States, 09 Civ. 8941 (S.D.N.Y.).
- Secured Office's first admissions of wrongdoing in a civil fraud settlement, United States v. Noble Jewelry, 08 Civ. 7826 (S.D.N.Y.), a customs case.
